

« Tim Love's Love Shack is coming to Victory Park | Main | Sweet \$99 deal at Morton's »

Three-buck chuck at Wal-Mart

Maybe you already know this little tidbit: Wal-Mart is selling a California wine for $2.97 a bottle. If you can believe the blogosphere on this one (and I think you probably can), the Oak Leaf Vineyards brand made in Ripon, Calif., is actually Gallo's way of dealing with a glut of grapes, not unlike Charles Shaw's two-buck-chuck of several years ago.

One of our spies found it on the shelves at the Wal-Mart Super Center on Garland Avenue in Garland. You can get California cab, a pinot grigio-chardonnay blend, chardonnay or merlot. Anybody had the chutzpah to buy one of these and taste it?

Posted by Kim Pierce on February 8, 2008 12:51 PM | Permalink

SEARCH

Search this blog:

Search

CATEGORIES

- Cooking
- Dining Talk
- Events
- KRLD Restaurant Week
- Restaurant News
- Shopping
- State Fair of Texas
- Television
- Texas Foods
- Wine & Spirits

Posted to <http://eats.beloblog.com>
February 8, 2008